

Mahoe Reserve

Advanced Trail Puzzle

ANSWERS

The attractive white blossoms of this tree provide nectar for insects	_____?___	Lacebark
The berries from these plants are eaten by lizards	_____?	Mikimiki
This is a frequently planted native in Canterbury	_?_____	Kohuhu
Kowhai's nectar is used by this native bird	_____?	Bellbird
Excellent re-vegetation and soil conservation plant	_? _____	Ti kouka
Looking after living things is called this	_____?_____	Conservation
This plant provides a striking vertical component of landscaping.	_____?__	Horoeke
Plant provides fruit and nesting habitat for native birds	_____?_	Totara
The scientific name for Kapuka or broadleaf is	_____?_____	Griselinia littoralis
Flowers of this native are attractive to bees	_____?__	Koromiko
This plant is valuable as cover plant in re-vegetation projects	_____?_	Tarata
Tui, bellbird and ??? feed on the nectar of Harakeke	_____?_	Waxeye

1 of the Mahoe Reserve is to increase the native _____ (Biodiversity)

The production of these trail activities supported by

