

SELWYN VIDEO COMPETITION 2017 INSTRUCTIONS

Theme	The videos must carry an Environmental message and if possible suggest action.
Length	1 to 5 minutes
Deadline	5.00pm Friday, 25 August 2017
Who may enter	Entry open to all, and can be individual or group entries.
Main Categories (may be adjusted due numbers entered)	Early childhood centres/kindergartens – preschoolers and their teachers. Primary school - person or group from this age group and their teachers. Secondary school - person or group from this age group and their teachers. Professional and university. All comers - open to any person, group or company.
Format	In the best quality you can manage on: .mov, .avi, .mp4, .mww
Media	Email or upload (i.e. Dropbox), DVD disk or flash drive.
Content	Can be video, slides, animation or any combination of these. Can be factual or fictitious, serious or humorous, real or acted. If you have made an environmental video for other purposes you are entitled still to us it for this competition. No bad language, no indecent images and no unauthorised use of other people's material.
Prizes	A panel will choose the winners. Prizes will be awarded at a public showing in the Lincoln Event Centre, 6 pm on Friday, September 8 th . The overall winner will receive the Kea Trophy.
Use and Screening Rights	By submitting your video, you grant us the right to show your video, to live audiences or online. This does not preclude your right to also screen the video as you see fit.
Organisers	Lincoln Envirotown Trust
More information	Dave Fitzjohn Phone: 03 4230445 Email: projectmanagerlet@gmail.com c/o Dave Fitzjohn, Department of Environmental Management, Natural Resources and Engineering Building, PO Box 85084, Lincoln University, Lincoln, 7647